Elaboration of commercial conflict of interest:

- a) Commercial conflict arises when a individual entity/ authority has, at any stage funded the work or in some way related to the work with any author or the institute concerned so that the result of the research or the conclusion may affect the authority financially. If it is "yes", then the corresponding author needs to declare the details categorically as

- 1) The name of the person / company / authority
- 2) Degree of funding/ support : part or whole
- 3) Indirect contribution as (kindly ✓ or specify) designing the study, analysis of the study, taken part in writing the manuscript
- 4) Otherwise having financial implications of any kind, if any. The example of the last point "otherwise having financial implications of any kind" includes the situations as
  - (i) Any co author has accepted any support of financial or any other kind from any authority where the said authority, in any way, may gain or lose financially from the results of the study or the conclusions of the manuscript. In case it is 'yes' the details of the name of the authority (individual/ organization) and the name of the concerned co-author has to be provided.
  - (ii) Is any author of the manuscript been employed by any authority that may gain/ lose financially from the study result or the conclusion of the manuscript ? in case it is 'yes' details of the names of the organization and the authors must be written and informed
  - (iii) Is any author of the manuscript been related or involved in any other way with an individual or organization (e.g., holding stocks or shares) where the result of the study / conclusion =can have an impact (gain/loss) on the individual or authority? In case it is 'yes' details of the names of the organization and the authors must be written and informed
  - (iv) Any other possible conflict of interest should be disclosed )
